

Adaptra – People, Projects, Delivery

Adaptra delivers the results you need

Australian owned and operated, Adaptra's focus on the effective execution of projects, in line with our client's strategic vision, makes us NSW's leading provider of project management solutions.

We specialise in a range of fields from project, process and change management to systems integration responsibility, making us the ideal partner to help you realise your department's objectives.

◆ Whatever your particular project needs, you need to know that your objectives will be achieved efficiently, swiftly and within budget.

◆ our approach

At Adaptra, our unique approach is simple and highly effective. We focus on three crucial aspects of project management: people, projects, and delivery.

people. Do you want the Adaptra advantage? At Adaptra, our people are our advantage. We are all about delivery, and our experts have the knowledge and experience to bring your project goals to fruition. Our associate team of over 100 project and program management professionals always has its eye on the end product, ensuring a successful project delivery.

projects. True to our name, Adaptra does more than your average project management provider, by adapting our approach to fit your specific and unique needs. Our ability is to deliver results from a focus on project outcomes, whether that be the realisation of business case benefits or the imperative to meet a fixed deadline.

delivery. With Adaptra, you get the end state that you envisaged at the beginning. We know that you need results, and we have the experience in successfully executing hundreds of projects for our clients. Our focus on the delivery of defined organisational goals, coupled with our commitment to work with your organisational capabilities to achieve these goals, makes us the best at what we do.

◆ our services

Our unique adaptive approach means that we tailor our services to your organisational requirements. This makes us quick to grasp the direction in which you want to head and the challenges you are facing. We will evaluate your current situation, determine the optimum recommendations for improvement and help you to implement them.

We also offer professional services from business case development and review, project initiation and planning through to periodic project health checks and change management assessment and planning. Whatever your particular requirements, our adaptive approach ensures that we fit your needs precisely, resulting in successful delivery every time.

We invite you to experience the Adaptra difference, because at Adaptra the delivery of your project needs is our priority.

Adaptra's suite of services includes:

- » Project management services
We focus on project execution to ensure successful results, whether you are beginning a new assignment or need to 'rescue' an underperforming project.
- » Project management office (PMO) services
We will help you to gain visibility and control by ensuring your programs are prioritised and aligned with your strategy.
- » Application and IT services
We can implement and manage IT projects ranging from large-scale IT systems to providing independent advice on vendor selection.
- » Business process management services
We implement simple yet innovative business process management solutions to ensure you realise your organisational objectives.

◆ Projects have a beginning, a middle, and an end – Adaptra makes sure you get the end you wanted in the beginning.
